Admissions Information and Undergraduate Application

Application instructions

Complete all sections of this application. Your responses should be typed or printed in ink. Pay particular attention to your intended enrollment date. Your application cannot be acted upon unless all items are either answered or designated as no applicable (N/A).

We strongly recommend that all your application materials be submitted together. This includes the application fee, official transcript(s) in an envelope sealed by your school(s), and your courses in progress. SAT/ACT scores should be sent directly from the College Board or ACT. Mail the completed application and the nonrefundable $70 application fee to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, 106 Whichard Building, Mail Stop 517, East Carolina University, Greenville NC, 27858-4353. Please include the applicants full name in the memo section of the check on the money order.

After admission and before entering East Carolina, you must also submit an immunization and medical record. All students entering a North Carolina college or university are required to provide this information.

If admission is offered, a nonrefundable $100 enrollment deposit is required for fall term applicants by May 1 to secure your place in the class.

Please note that admission to the university does not guarantee admission to all degree programs, many of which have additional application procedures and requirements.

Your failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information on this application will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or dismiss you after enrollment. Please note Undergraduate Admissions will use e-mail for official application communication.

Application status

FRESHMAN

A freshman is a student who has never attended a college or university since graduating from high school.

To be eligible for admission as a freshman, you must have completed the following upon high school graduation:

English - 4 course units in English emphasizing grammar, composition, and literature

Language - 2 course units of the same language other than English

Mathematics - 4 course units including algebra I, geometry, algebra II, and a higher-level mathematics course for which algebra II is a prerequisite

Natural science - 3 course units; 1 unit must be a life or biological science, 1 unit must be a physical science, and 1 unit must be a laboratory science

Social studies - 2 course units; 1 unit must be U.S. history

Arts - 1 or more course units recommended

During your senior year, we recommend that you take a foreign language, mathematics, and a natural science course in addition to English.

A complete Application for freshman admission includes:

- a completed application form
- a check, money order, or credit card authorization for the $70 nonrefundable application fee
- SAT/ACT scores sent directly from an official testing agency; writing scores are required.
- a high school transcript sealed by the school showing class rank and senior grade point average in a 4.0 scale and senior-year courses
- transcripts from all postsecondary schools attended

TRANSFER

A transfer is a student who will have attended a postsecondary institution since high school graduation and has a minimum of 30 semester (45 quarter) hours of transferable work at the time he or she proposes to enroll at East Carolina*. Transfer students must have a 2.5 cumulative grade point average both cumulative and on transferable courses, as computed by East Carolina. Applicants who will have completed fewer than 30 semester hours (45 quarter) hours will also be required to meet the freshman requirements (high school grades, SAT/ACT scores, and high school courses). All transfer students under the age of 24 must provide proof that they have completed the minimum course requirements in high school, unless they have already earned an AA or AS/AFA degree. Transferring students are encouraged to apply after completing one semester of full-time, college-level course work.

A complete application to transfer to East Carolina includes:

- a completed application form
- a check, money order, or credit card authorization for the nonrefundable application fee
- an official final high school transcript
- courses in progress from any school currently attending
- final official transcripts from all postsecondary schools attended

REMOVAL OF HIGH SCHOOL DEFICIENCIES

All students who completed high school in 1998 or later must meet the same secondary school requirements as freshmen. If you did not complete those courses by your high school graduation date, you must qualify for admission in one of the following ways:

1. Complete 6 semester (9 quarter) transferable hours each in English, mathematics, science, social science, and a foreign language from a regionally accredited institution. *All transfer credits must be received by a regionally accredited institution.
2. Earn an associate of arts (AA), associate of science (AS), or an associate of fine arts (AFA) degree from a regionally accredited institution. An associate of applied science degree (AAS) will not meet this requirement.
3. Complete the general education core at a North Carolina community college.

SECOND UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE CANDIDATE

A second-degree candidate is a student who holds a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution and wishes to work towards another in a second academic area. Second-degree candidates must complete the "school/department" and "major" items on the first page of the application.

A complete application for a candidate for a second degree includes:

- a completed application form
- a check, money order, or credit card authorization for the nonrefundable application fee
- final official transcript from the postsecondary school from which the degree was awarded

*Transfer applicants must have completed, with a grade of C or better, 6 credits in English equivalent to ENGL 1100 and 1200 and 3 credits in mathematics equivalent to MATH 1065 (College algebra)

CAMPUS SAFETY QUESTIONS

Your "yes" answer to one or more of the following questions will not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, your failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

For the purpose of the following six questions, "crime" or "criminal charge" refers to any crime other than a traffic-related misdemeanor or an infraction. You must, however, include alcohol or drug offenses whether or not they are traffic related.

Have you been convicted of a crime? Yes No

Have you ever entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution or prayer for judgement continued, to a criminal charge? Yes No

Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime? Yes No

Do you have any criminal charges pending against you? Yes No

Have you ever been expelled, dismissed, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college, or university? Yes No

If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge? Yes No

If you answered "yes" to any of the six questions above, please explain the circumstances below.

You must promptly notify the Admissions Office in writing of any criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, or any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discharge other than an honorable discharge that occurs at any time after you submit the application. Your failure to do so will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

I have read and understand the above statement and will fully comply.

East Carolina University Honor Code

The educational mission of East Carolina University includes a commitment to develop “each learner’s ability to discover, evaluate, and communicate knowledge.” (Strategies for Distinction, University Directions, 2000-2005, p.1.)

In order to achieve that mission, the University actively supports the Honor Code: You are on your honor not to cheat, steal, or lie.

The Honor Code is the basis for East Carolina University’s Academic Integrity Policy. It is a violation of the Honor Code:

- 1. to Cheat. Cheating is defined as “the actual giving or receiving of any unauthorized aid or assistance or the giving or receiving of any unfair advantage regarding any form of academic work.”
- 2. to Steal. Plagiarism is also stealing. Plagiarism is defined as “copying the language, structure, ideas, or thoughts of another, and passing off the same as one’s original work.”
- 3. to Lie. Intentional falsification is lying. Intentional falsification is defined as “any statement of untruth, either orally or in writing, regarding any situation relating to academic work.”
- 4. to Attempt to Cheat, Steal, or Lie. Attempt is defined as “action toward the commission of any act that would constitute a violation as defined herein (that is cheating, stealing and plagiarism, or intentional falsification). Any such attempt shall be deemed a violation of the Honor Code, and will be punishable to the same extent as if the attempted act had been completed by the consummated.”

I, _____, agree to support the educational mission of East Carolina University.
PRINT NAME

I pledge to act with integrity. I pledge to uphold the Honor Code and abide by the Student Code of Conduct. I will not cheat, plagiarize, or falsify academic information or attempt to do so while enrolled at East Carolina University. I understand that violating the principles of the Honor Code is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and will result in appropriate sanctions. Please visit www.ecu.edu/studentlife/osrr/code_policies.cfm for further information.

I understand that when I accept East Carolina University’s offer of admission, I accept all the rules and policies of the university. Yes No

I certify that all items on this application are answered correctly and completely. I understand my failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information on this application will be grounds to deny or withdraw my admission, or dismiss me after enrollment. I also understand that it is my responsibility to notify East Carolina University promptly if there is any change in the above information prior to my enrollment at East Carolina.

In 2004-2005, the six year graduation rate for students who entered East Carolina University in the fall of 1999 on a full-time basis was 54.4 percent. Also, an additional 4.7 percent of this entering class went on to graduate from another UNC institution, thus raising the six-year graduation rate to 59.1 percent. Additionally, 4.6 percent of the class is still enrolled at ECU or at another UNC institution; thus, the overall persistence rate is 63.7 percent.

East Carolina University is committed to equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, creed, sexual orientation, or disability. Moreover, East Carolina University is open to people of all races and actively seeks to promote racial integration by recruiting and enrolling a larger number of minority students. An equal opportunity/affirmative action university, which accommodates the needs of individuals with disabilities.
